

Doctor LYDIA BEZZI

Born on October 19, 1983 in Bejaia in Algeria with French and Algerian nationality.

Graduated with the Doctorate in General Medicine in 2008 and the Doctorate in Special Medicine in Nephrological Sciences in 2016.

From 2016 to 2017: nephrologist at the kidney transplant unit in a center university hospital.

2017 to 2021: nephrologist in a hospital specializing in organ transplantation and tissue transplantation where I was elected as:

- 1. Member of the Office of Ethical Review of Clinical Trials.
- 2. Referring physician in the management of the immunocompromised patient.
- 3. Member of the Medical Council.
- 4. Member of the training cell.

2021: success in the national master's competition.

Several of my scientific works in Algeria, Maghreb and France:

Clinical nephrology

- 1. Renal impairment during Waldenstrom's disease with cryoglobulinemia in a young subject: about a case
- 2. Tubulo nephritis – acute interstitial.
- 3. Cardiorenal syndrome.
- 4. Secondary HSF after partial nephrectomy.
- 5. NTA and neuroleptic malignant syndrome.
- 6. Hyperoxaluria primitive de type I.
- 7. Hepato-renal polycystic disease and pregnancy.

Peritoneal dialysis

CKD –MBD in peritoneal dialysis patients

Kidney transplantation:

- 1. Delay in resuming Greffon function: cases of a related living donor
- 2. Graft survival rate at 1 year: case of a related living donor
- 3. Metabolic complications related to immunosuppressive therapy.
- 4. Myeloma post transplantation.
- 5. Pregnancy in kidney transplant recipients.
- 6. Kidney transplantation of the child.
- 7. Therapeutic education in kidney transplantation.
- 8. Adherence to immunosuppressive therapy in kidney transplantation.