

Full name: Gerel Ochir

Affiliation: Mongolian University of Science and Technology

Biography:

Gerel Ochir is Professor, Director of Geoscience Center and Consulting Geologist. She obtained her bachelor's and master's degrees from Charles University (Prague), PhD from Institute of Earth Crust, and ScD from Vinogradov Institute of Geochemistry, both of the Russian Academy of Sciences. Gerel Ochir was for 30 years head of the Department of Geology at the Mongolian University of Science and Technology. She is the author of more than 350 scientific publications, including scientific reports, textbooks, and leader of many international projects. She is part of the editorial board of many international journals. Gerel Ochir is Past President of the International Union of Geological Sciences, Executive Committee member of other professional societies, and Adjunct Professor at the Institute of Mineral resources, CAGs, Beijing. She is an Honored Scientist of Mongolia and State Prize Winer. Her scientific interests include petrology, geochemistry, mineral resources and metallogeny.